

"A few persons even got a fragment of the mirror into their hearts, and that was terrible indeed, for such a heart became a block of ice."

THE CHILDREN'S DANCE THEATRE

Hans Christian Anderson's classic tale of love, hate, loyalty and friendship, The Snow Queen, is brought vividly to life by the Children's Dance Theatre. Featuring a cast of more than 40 young people and striking, original choreography, this enchanting story is recreated with unforgettable warmth and intensity.

Directed by Emma Lamoureux, the tale of Kai and Gerda, the evil goblin and the luminous, magical Snow Queen has a timelessness that will touch the heart of every viewer.

Academy Award-winner, Joanne Woodward provides the haunting narration. With poignancy and richness of detail, she masterfully brings to life Anderson's timeless fable.

Taped before a live audience at Rogers High School in Newport, Rhode Island, The Snow Queen captures the innocence of youth and the discovery of the magic friendship.

This program was funded in part by the Rhode Island State Council on the Arts and Newman's Own, Inc.
