OPENING NIGHT PRESENTATION

Columbus Theater

270 Broadway

Providence, RI

The Rhode Island Film Festival begins its ninth year at 7PM, Tuesday, August 9th, in Providence at the Columbus Theatre (270 Broadway) with a focus on the art of short films. Selected from thousands of submissions from throughout the world, the two-hour program of local, national and international shorts represents an eclectic array of genres. The Festival' traditional opening-night focus on shorts promises to surpass the excitement of last year's sold-out event. Tickets are $15.

The film selection:

- The Butcher and the Housewife
- Wow and Flutter
- Viaje a Marte (Journey to Mars)
- 9:30
- Hibernation
- Cherie
- Triumph des Nichtschwimmers (Swimming Lessons)
- Billy Gilman: Making of the Videos

9:30 p.m. – 12:00p.m.

CLOSING NIGHT PRESENTATION

“THE BLACK PIRATE”

What a grand way to close our event and celebrate the history of the Columbus Theatre with a screening of the newly restored full color (2-strip Technicolor) silent film The Black Pirate, starring Douglas Fairbanks.

The silent classic will be preceded by a showing of restored fragments of the recently rediscovered film My Lady of the Lilacs, made in Rhode Island in 1916 and written by the female screenwriting pioneer Beta Breuil. This is presented in collaboration with the Rhode Island Historical Society,

The Black Pirate, made in 1926 is a fitting selection to remind viewers of the history of filmmaking in connection with the Columbus Theatre's own beginning when it first opened its doors in the same year. The noted Alloy Orchestra will accompany the film with an original score. Tickets are $15.
