FLICKERS ANNOUNCES THE WINNERS OF ITS 2019 SCREENPLAY COMPETITION
The Rhode Island International Screenplay Competition received 543 submissions from throughout the United States and across the globe

(PROVIDENCE, RI – October 29, 2019) • Daniel Talbott, Los Angeles, CA the Best Screenplay Grand Prize Winner for this year's Flickers' Rhode Island International Film Festival (RIIFF) Screenplay Competition. Daniel’s winning screenplay is entitled “Yosemite.”

George T. Marshall, RIIFF Executive Director/CEO, made the announcement of the 2019 awards that featured 543 entries in competition. From these, 42 scripts were selected as finalists and 16 scripts were selected Winners by an international team of adjudicators.

The “Yosemite” storyline: Three young siblings have been sent into the snow-silent woods in the Sierra Nevada foothills to bury a family secret. They search for a way to escape or be rescued from their lives as snow continues to fall and the world sinks in around them.

"Daniel Talbott’s script is beautiful and tragic. Brimming with raw emotion, Daniel has created a work that is original, innovative, and hits us at our core” said Shawn Quirk, RIIFF Program Director.

“What an amazing year for storytelling and our screenplay competition. This year’s entries were inventive and re-defining. They were scored on criteria that included character, dialogue, setting, plot, structure and technique,” added Quirk. “We reviewed the largest entry base in competition’s history making for difficult decision-making on the part of our international group of judges.

"After extensive and careful deliberation, prize winners were chosen in seven distinct categories: Best Screenplay, Best International, Vortex Sci-Fi/Fantasy/Horror, Best LGBTQ, Spotlight on New England, Best Short Screenplay, Best Animation Screenplay, and Best Television Pilot,” Quirk noted.

"Our sincere congratulations to this year’s winners," stated George T. Marshall. "This competition continues to introduce us to some of the world's brightest and most talented writers in the craft."
