

2009 FACT SHEET

Downtown Providence, Rhode Island was invaded August 5-10 for the 13th Annual Rhode Island International Film Festival (RIIFF). 326 filmmakers, cast and crew from around the world came to exhibit their films, meet with distributors and compete for the Festival's top prizes. RIIFF is accredited by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences as a qualifier for Oscar in the Best Short (Live Action) category. The Opening Night Program took place at the historic Providence Performing Arts Center (PPAC). Sony Corporation and HB Communications sponsorship provided the Festival with the latest High Definition projection technology for screenings at the Columbus Theatre Arts Center. The Festival was cited by Chris Gore in "The Ultimate Film Festival Survival Guide, 3rd edition (2004), as one of the Best International and Short Festivals in the United States and "One of the most exciting new festivals to come along, Rhode Island International Film Festival aggressively supports its filmmakers." Travel Smart Magazine in 2006 also cited RIIFF as one of the "Top 12 Film Festivals in the United States."

RIIFF By the Numbers: Interesting facts and statistics:

- The Festival is accredited by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences as a qualifying festival for the Academy Award for Best Short (Live Action). Only 65 festivals out of over 7,000 worldwide share this honor. RIIFF is the only AA affiliated Festival in New England.
