About Flickers

Flickers, now in its second decade, produces video, audio and film about the arts for television, festivals and other non-profit organizations. Flickers creates and produces educational programs that teach about the media arts. From the acclaimed Rhode Island International Film Festival held each August to a Japanese film festival held in conjunction with the Black Ships Festival in Newport to Flickers’ award-winning arts and cultural television series, "Between Takes," to the Creative Impulse Awards to radio programming with “DoubleFeature” to the Jamestown Chamber Music Series, Flickers has brought live performances, great films and interviews with leading artists to live and television audiences for over 28 years.

About RIIFF

The Rhode Island International Film Festival™ is the largest festival in New England, screening 175 titles in six days with an attendance in 2009 topping 27,000. Films screened came from 57 countries and 21 states in the U.S. There were 38 World Premieres and 48 U.S. Premieres. A total of 17 narrative features were screened along with 71 feature documentaries. RIIFF is considered “one of the most exciting new festivals to come along,” says Chris Gore in the Ultimate Film Festival Survival Guide (2004). It is also a qualifying festival for the Short Film Academy Award through its affiliation with the Academy of Motion Picture Arts & Sciences. Out of over 7,000 film festivals held worldwide, only 65 have this affiliation. RIIFF is the only festival in New England with this accolade.

Summer Filmmaking Camp

July 5-9, 2010
9 A.M. – 3 P.M.

University of Rhode Island
Kingston, RI

Participants learn the basics of filmmaking through workshops on screenwriting, storyboarding, acting, directing, and production design. Activities are hands-on and culminate in the production of a short film directed by and starring KidsEye participants. For children and teens ages 8 through 16.

Cost for the KidsEye Summer Camp Program is $345. This includes: the KidsEye Filmmaking Guide, official KidsEye T-shirt, DVD copy of film, and admission to KidsEye International Film Festival, as well as a world premiere of the films made during the camp, in August. Scholarship applications are available. Please contact us for details.
