The 24TH ANNUAL FLICKERS' "VIRTUAL" RHODE ISLAND INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL (RIIFF), running August 4-9, 2020, is a major destination on the Festival circuit and recognized by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences as a Qualifying Festival in all short film categories. It is the only Festival in New England with this accolade. The Festival welcomes stellar filmmaking talents from all over the world to beautiful Providence, Rhode Island—one of America’s oldest and most beloved cities. This year, responding to the impact of COVID-19, the Festival will take a hybrid approach utilizing area Drive-In theatres with social distancing and protocols/guidance from the Rhode Island Governor’s Office and the Department of Health and for special screenings. Virtual programming will also take place online.

RIIFF embraces both filmmakers and screenwriters with the sort of warm-hearted spirit that fosters long-lasting friendships, sparks exciting creative projects, and inspires artists to return again and again. Last year, five films from the Festival received Oscar® nominations and one, “the Neighbor’s Window” by Marshall Curry, won for Best Live Action Short.

Along with double features at the Rustic and Misquamicut Drive-Ins, online webinars, industry workshops, special tributes, virtual coffee talks, filmmaker interviews, and post film screening Q&A’s, the 2020 Festival will continue popular annual programs. This programming includes the acclaimed Scriptbiz Seminar, the Rhode Island Film Forum, interviews on the Festival’s weekly Rhode Island PBS series, “doubleFEATURE,” the Youth Film Jury, KidsEye Screenings and online summer workshop, a virtual Awards program and the announcement of this year’s Winifred Brownell Scholarship Fund award winner.

The Full Festival Schedule will be available by the week of July 27th and will be evolving throughout the Festival, with new programming appearing daily. Links to films will appear on their scheduled play dates and remain live for a period of seven (7) days.

2020 FESTIVAL DEDICATION:

This year’s Festival is dedicated to the memories of the 671,983+ individuals who have lost their lives to COVID-19, including the more than 154,000 in the United States and the more than one thousand in the State of Rhode Island.

According to George T. Marshall, Flickers Executive Director, “In this period of great personal stress and professional uncertainty, our Board felt it important to pay tribute to those who are no longer with us due to COVID-19. Every life is precious and for those we have lost in such a tragic way -- whose lives were cut short so unexpectedly -- our programming is dedicated in their memory.”

Steven Feinberg, Executive Director of the Rhode Island Film & Television Office said, “My favorite week of the year has finally arrived. We salute Flickers and the prestigious Rhode Island International Film Festival for celebrating 38 exciting years of excellence. Remarkably, it was only twelve months ago, on Opening Night at the glorious Veteran’s Memorial Auditorium (The Vets) when RIIFF illuminated our minds to a spectacular line up of movies from across the globe. Five films from last year’s Festival – including “A Sister” from Opening Night -- went on to be nominated for the elusive Academy Award! What an amazing journey!

According to Shawn Quirk RIIFF Program Director, “Annually we are treated by the quality of the various productions from around the globe; these films bring the world to Rhode Island and enlighten us in our cultural outlook. There is nothing more exciting and invigorating than being exposed to the incredible work created by these impassioned filmmakers. This time around we will be watching premieres of such films as Roko Belic's "Trust Me," Joshua Leonard's "Fully Realized Humans" Olivia Vaughn's "Barefoot: The Mark Baumer Story," Zach Ingrassci and Chris Temple's "Five Year's North," Jack Lawrence Mayer's "Big House," Molly Stuart's "Objector," Taghi Amirani's "Coup 53," Jure Pavlovic's "Mater," Bahman Tavooisi's "Los Nombres de Las Flores," Bob Balaban's "Shande." and many many more.

Over its six-day run, the Festival will make available online or at Drive-In screenings, close to 300 films that include multiple World/United States Premieres from 54 countries including Iceland, Israel, Iran, Croatia, Armenia, Turkey, Australia, Germany, the United Kingdom Belgium, China, Japan, South Africa, Mexico, Brazil, Italy, France, Greece and 34 states in the US.
