FLICKERS' RHODE ISLAND INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL ANNOUNCES ITS 2020 AWARD WINNERS

Diverse Group of 263 International Films Shine at Academy-Award Qualifying Festival

(Providence, R.I. • Aug. 14, 2020) – Flickers' Rhode Island International Film Festival (RIIFF) proudly announced the Award Winners for its 38th Anniversary Celebration of Flickers, on Sunday, August 9, 2020. The Annual Awards Ceremony was held virtually on Facebook Live and received 2,700 international views. This year's Festival ran from Tuesday, August 4th through Sunday, August 9th. Due to the health directives and restrictions regarding social gatherings and COVID-19, the Festival was a hybrid event that included live screenings at area Drive-ins along with an online virtual platform. This year, the Festival was seen globally and garnered more than 42,000 views.

The Flickers' Rhode Island International Film Festival (RIIFF), a major destination on the Festival circuit and recognized by the Academy as a Qualifying Festival in all short film categories, welcomes stellar filmmaking talents from all over the world to beautiful Providence, Rhode Island—one of America's oldest and most beloved cities.

RIIFF embraces both filmmakers and screenwriters with the sort of warm-hearted spirit that fosters long-lasting friendships, sparks exciting creative projects, and inspires artists to return again and again. Last year, five films from the Festival received Oscar® nominations and one, "The Neighbor's Window" by Marshall Curry, won for Best Live Action Short.

Along with double features at the Rustic and Misquamicut Drive-Ins, online webinars, industry workshops, special tributes, virtual coffee talks, filmmaker interviews, and post film screening Q&A's, the 2020 Festival continued popular annual programs. These included the Scriptbiz Seminar, the Rhode Island Film Forum, interviews on the Festival's weekly Rhode Island PBS series, "doubleFEATURE," the Youth Film Jury, KidsEye Screenings and an online summer workshop, a Virtual Awards program and the announcement of this year's Winifred Brownell Scholarship Fund Award winner.

The 2020 Festival was dedicated to the memories of the 671,371+ individuals who have lost their lives to COVID-19, including the more than 167,295 in the United States and the more than one thousand in the State of Rhode Island.

According to Lawrence J. Andrade Flickers Board Member, "In this period of great personal stress and professional uncertainty, our Board felt it important to pay tribute to those who are no longer with us due to COVID-19. Every life is precious and for those we have lost in such a tragic way -- whose lives were cut short so unexpectedly -- our programming is dedicated in their memory."

Steven Feinberg, Executive Director of the Rhode Island Film & TV Office, said "Congratulations to the esteemed Rhode Island International Film Festival for their 38th successful run of the festival during these extremely challenging times in our world. They were able to be creative with virtual screenings and conversations as well as outdoor drive-in experiences. A heart-felt and warm congrats to executive director George T. Marshall, programmer Shawn Quirk, fellow producer Larry Andrade, tech champion Tim Haggerty, Board chair Michael Drywa, Esq, and the entire board, support team, volunteers, students.

Director Feinberg continued, "You should all be extremely proud of your celebration of global films and a new wave of moviemakers from around the world. Thank you also for showcasing our beautiful "Ocean State" of Rhode Island. RIFF is a treasure we should all cherish. Thank you again."

This year's interns came from across the country and worked tirelessly to make the event a reality. From overseeing filmmaker contacts, public relations and marketing to hosting Q&A's, the Festival salutes these dedicated scholars: Linh Vu, Vanderbilt University, Johanna Rose and Siyu Liu, Boston University, Juliana Verrelli, Salve Regina University, Madison Caress, Vassar College, Robert J Delany and Sara Maria Monsalve, New York University, Gideon Hamot and Maggie Davis, Colgate University, Lorna Doherty, College of the Holy Cross, Jillian Conley, Skidmore College, Perla Figuereo, Bates College, Malka V Chu, Binghamton University, Noah Crowley, Temple University, Victoria Beaudoin, Pace University, Corrie K. Traverse, Providence College and Alexander Valenti, Brown University.

SPECIAL THANKS

"Our sincere appreciation and gratitude goes to Steven Feinberg, the Rhode Island Film & Television Office; Kristen Adamo at the Providence/Warwick CVB; Claire Collins at IMCS; Nina Stack, The Champlin Foundation; Marie-Jose and Laurence Gagnon, Quebec Delegation; Tom Oyer, the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences; Don Curtin and Kelly Johnston, Channel 6; Ashley Erling, The Rhode Show; Daniel Schwartz, The Vets; Ed Mastriano, Cox Media; Dr. J. Scott Oberacker, Johnson and Wales University; Fr. Kenneth Gumbert, Providence College; Jonathan Arruda, The Dean Hotel; Greg Nawrocki, Hotel Providence Todd Trebour, RISCA; Ruth Clegg, Art League Rhode Island; short film distributors, Katie McCullough and Ian Bignell, Festival Formula; writer, Chris Sparling; director, Eric Latek; actor, Michael Grando and legendary actress Marlyn Mason, we hit a home run this year, further raising the bar for the future and next year's edition of the Festival," said George T. Marshall, Flickers' Executive Director.

"This year, we received an incredible number of inspiring and thought-provoking international films. Despite all the challenges facing artists in today's film industry, films continued to be produced and submitted. We are both humbled and in awe of the sheer talent that is currently on the global stage. Filmmakers from around the world with unique and inspiring artistic voices were championed this past week as we showcased their exceptional work and featured them in Q&A's and industry panel discussions. We are witnessing a global Renaissance in the cinematic arts that is taking place regardless of our current limitations from COVID-19, and it is a distinct honor to be able to share these groundbreaking films with our audiences," added Shawn Quirk, RIFF's Program Director.

FLICKERS is a 501(c)(3) non-profit arts organization that supports and promotes the film arts in Rhode Island and throughout New England. Over the past two decades, its production, the Rhode Island International Film Festival, has screened 5,764 independent films and videos out of 74,754 entries, presented 1,405 World/North American premieres, featured over 1,200 entries that were locally produced, and hosted 4,193 filmmakers and crew. Since its inception, over 499,000 film lovers have enjoyed the Rhode Island International Film Festival and its programming, not including those in New England watching its weekly broadcast and cable programming series, doubleFEATURE.

Over its six-day run, the Festival screened 263 films that included 83 World/United States Premieres from 51 countries including Denmark, Israel, Bosnia, Serbia, Germany, Australia, Iceland, Iran, Spain, Mexico, China, Italy, France, Brazil and 34 states in the US. The films for this year's Festival were selected from a record entry base of 6,417 submissions.

RIIFF is proud to be one of 10 Festivals in the world that is an Academy Award qualifier in the Live Action, Animation and Documentary Short categories and a qualifier with the British Academy of Film and Television Arts (BAFTA). With vanguard programming that seeks to showcase new voices in independent filmmaking from across the globe, RIIFF serves as an exceptional platform from which to launch exciting careers for artists who deserve to be discovered. Eleven films that have premiered at RIIFF have won Academy Awards with a total of 71 nominated, and many have gained distribution with the likes of HBO, Showtime, PBS, Netflix and IFC. A wide range of competitive categories—including Comedy, Drama, Horror, Children's, LGBTQ, Documentary, Webisodes, Music Videos, Pilots, Science Fiction, and Animated films—RIIFF offers entrants and audience members a veritable buffet of great stories, surprises, and narrative formats. There's even a screenplay and teleplay competition, designed to give talented screenwriters some well-deserved industry credibility. At RIIFF, there's no shortage of ways to get noticed and participate.

THE 2020 GRAND PRIZE SHORT FILM WINNERS:

The winners of RIIFF's Live Action, Animation and Documentary Short Grand Prizes hold a special honor: they become the Festival's nominees for Academy Award consideration.

LIVE ACTION SHORT: "Ivo" | Directed by: Christina Lande | Norway | 2019

The teacher Iben (64) lives alone with her dog Ivo in a small coastal community in Lofoten. She's always felt like an outsider in the village, and life doesn't get any easier when one of her students claims he's been bitten by her dog.

ANIMATED SHORT: "Gon, Little Fox" | Directed by: Takeshi Yashiro | Japan | 2019

When Gon, a playful orphaned fox, finds that young Hyoju has lost his mother, he tries to comfort him and make amends for his own earlier mischiefs by secretly bringing small gifts to the boy every day. But Hyoju doesn't realize who is behind the anonymous gifts, and the two are headed for a heartbreaking climax.

DOCUMENTARY SHORT: "Messania's Story" | Directed by: Laki Karavias | United States | 2020

A childhood filled with laughter and friends, singing and games—cut short by the circumciser's knife. In her early teens, Messania walked the same path as millions of other young girls around the world, first undergoing female genital mutilation to make her marriageable and then being married off to a stranger many years older than herself. Listen as Messania shares her spiritual journey of identity from her rural Kenyan home to see how this strong woman—who could have remained just a statistic—found the determination to escape abuse, challenge harmful cultural norms, and sing a new song of freedom, for herself and for girls like her everywhere.

2020 INDUSTRY AWARD WINNERS & SPECIAL AWARDS:

WINIFRED E. BROWNELL SCHOLARSHIP AWARD

As part of its ongoing "Celebration of Women in Film and Arts", the Flickers' Rhode Island International Film Festival (RIIFF) is proud to announce the winner of the annual Winifred E. Brownell Scholarship Fund. Named after the recently retired Dean of the URI College of Arts and Sciences, Dr. Winifred E. Brownell, the scholarship pays recognition to her career championing the arts and humanities at the University. The annual award is for $1,000 and is presented without restrictions to students at the University of Rhode Island, allowing the winner to use the money as they see fit.

This year's winner is Lionel Jeffries, of Toland, CT who will be entering his junior year at the University of Rhode Island and pursuing a major in Film. His goal is to establish a career path in film directing.

THE RIIFF SCREENPLAY COMPETITION AWARD

- Presented to Daniel Talbott from Los Angeles, CA for his screenplay "YOSEMITE," that chronicles three young siblings who have been sent into the snow-silent woods in the Sierra Nevada foothills to dig a hole deep enough to bury a family secret. The script is both beautiful and tragic, brimming with raw emotion.

Daniel Talbott is a writer, director, actor, and a Lucille Lortel and Obie Award winning theater producer. He is a graduate of Juilliard, a proud member of Echo Theater Company, and a member of the Actors Studio.

GEORGES MELIES SCI-FI, FANTASY AWARD

The Georges Méliès Sci-Fi & Fantasy Award is presented to a filmmaker with a unique and creative vision, reflecting the work of the visionary French illusionist and film director who pioneered many technical and narrative developments in the earliest days of cinema. Méliès films include A Trip to the Moon (1902) and The Impossible Voyage (1904), which both are considered among the most important early fantasy and science fiction films, thus establishing the importance of the genre.

- Robert M Schulbaum, writer/director, "The Wrong Todd"

DREAMMAKER AWARD

The Dream Maker Award recognizes those who provide incredible service and support of the local film community and are a voice for advocacy of the film industry."

- Lawrence J. Andrade, Flickers; Director of Research and Development, Dominion Diagnostics

THE 2020 PRODUCER'S CIRCLE AWARDS

- Presented annually to members of the community who have actively worked to support and promote the mission of the Flickers' Rhode Island International Film Festival. This year's recipients included:

- Michelle Abbott, Producer
- David M. Dooley, President, University of Rhode Island
- Dominick Ruggerio, Senate President, State of Rhode Island
- Daniel Sousa, Animator/Director
- IATSE, Local 481

ABOUT FLICKERS:

The mission of the 39 year-old Flickers Arts Collaborative is to serve as a creative partner in the arts by uniting various media and arts disciplines that nurture the artistic process and support a vital part of our community. This includes multi-disciplinary art presentations; artistic and cultural activities; performance festivals; video and television productions and exhibition; audio recordings and broadcasts; educational outreach programs; and the Flickers' Rhode Island International Film Festival (RIIFF).

THE FLICKERS' RHODE ISLAND INTERNATIONAL FILM FESTIVAL has secured its place in the global community as the portal for the best in international independent cinema, earning the respect of domestic and foreign filmmakers, filmgoers and trend watchers. Ranked as one of the top 10 Festivals in the United States, RIIFF is a qualifying festival for the Narrative, Documentary and Animation Short Film Academy Awards through its affiliation with the Academy of Motion Picture Arts & Sciences, the British Academy of Film and Television Arts (BAFTA) and the Canadian Screen Awards. There are only 10 film festivals worldwide that share this distinction and RIIFF is the only festival in New England. The Festival takes place every August.

MORE ABOUT THE FESTIVAL

RIIFF offers a variety of prestigious awards to some of the most talented artists in (and soon to be in) the business. The festival's Gilbert Stuart Artistic Vision Lifetime Achievement Award has been bestowed upon Academy Award-winning actors Ernest Borgnine and Patricia Neal, Oscar-nominated actors Seymour Cassel and Cicely Tyson, acclaimed actors of stage and screen, Paul Sorvino and Theo Bikel, director Blake Edwards, special effects icon, Douglas Trumbull and production design legend, Joseph Alves. The festival's Creative Vision and Crystal Image Awards recognizing outstanding directors, actors, writers, film talent, have been awarded to such talents as Karen Allen, Zach Braff, Blythe Danner, Ioan Gruffudd, Rosa von Praunheim, Michael Showalter, composer Klaus Badelt, and children's book author Sandra Boynton. More than simply a film festival, RIFF champions artistic vision in any form and is dedicated to sharing that vision with a diverse and enthusiastic audience that hungers for great storytelling.

The Flickers' Rhode Island International Film Festival returns August 10-15, 2021. For more information, please contact us at 401.861.4445 / rifilmfest.org
