ABOUT DIANA DRYWA & ROSS FEINBERG
DIANA DRYWA / ROSS FEINBERG
Educators

ROSS M. FEINBERG was the beloved husband of Lotte (Wallach) Feinberg for 61 years. Born in Brooklyn, NY, a son of the late Joseph and Beatrice (Slafkes) Feinberg, he was a longtime resident of Cranston. Ross was an educator in the Coventry School Department for 34 years and was as devoted to his students as they were to him. He also taught GED and special needs. He was a graduate of URI, Class of ’57 and received his Master's Degree from RIC, Class of ’63. Ross was Vice President of CTA and a chairman of the Coventry Teacher's Association Scholarship Committee. He was also a member of Touro Fraternal Association and avid Giants, Yankees fan and loved Mel Brooks. Devoted father of Robert Feinberg and his wife, Janice, of North Kingstown, and Steven Feinberg of Cranston

DIANA N. (UPHAM) DRYWA, was the beloved wife of Michael F. Drywa Sr. for 55 years. Born in Bellows Falls, Vermont, she was a daughter of the late Raymond and Doris (Collins) Upham. Diana worked for the Pawtucket School Department for many years, until her retirement. Diana was a self-described "people-person" and above all, she was a devoted and loving wife, mother, grandmother, sister, aunt and dear friend. Besides her loving husband, she leaves seven children, Jean Sweeney and her husband, Brian, of Taunton, Lisa M. Dyson and her husband, Russell, of Pawtucket, Michael F. Drywa Jr. and his wife, Sandra, of Port Orange, Fla., Kristen E. Skeffington and her husband, Sean, of Seekonk, Patrick J. Drywa and his wife, Aimee, of Seekonk, Kathleen M. Massey and her husband, Barry, of Pawtucket, and Shawn M. Drywa and his wife, Rachel, of Lincoln and 10 grandchildren.
