About Flickers

Flickers, now in its second decade, produces video, audio and film about the arts for television, festivals and other non-profit organizations. Flickers creates and produces educational programs that teach about the media arts. From the acclaimed Rhode Island International Film Festival held each August to the Flickers North Country Film Festival in New Hampshire to Flickers' award-winning arts and cultural programming "Between Takes," to the 7 Day PSA Competition the Creative Impulse Awards to radio programming with "DoubleFeature" to the Youth Jury and Community Outreach, Flickers has brought live performances, great films and interviews with leading artists to live and television audiences for over 29 years.

About RIIFF

The Rhode Island International Film Festival™ is the largest festival in New England, screening 175 titles in six days with an attendance in 2010 topping 28,000. Films screened came from 53 countries and 33 states in the U.S. There were 39 World Premieres and 28 U.S. Premieres. A total of 21 Narrative Features, 49 Feature Documentaries and 135 Short Films were screened. RIIFF is considered "one of the most exciting festivals to come along," says Chris Gore in the Ultimate Film Festival Survival Guide. It is also a qualifying festival for the Short Film Academy Award through its affiliation with the Academy of Motion Picture Arts & Sciences. Out of over 7,000 film festivals held worldwide, only 65 have this affiliation. RIIFF is the only festival in New England with this accolade.

KidsEye™ Summer Filmmaking Camp
A Flickers Production

Summer Filmmaking Camp

July 11-15, 2011

9 A.M. – 3 P.M.

University of Rhode Island
Kingston, RI

Participants learn the basics of filmmaking through workshops on screenwriting, storyboarding, acting, directing, and production design. Activities are hands-on and culminate in the production of a short film directed by and starring KidsEye participants. For children and teens ages 8 through 16.

Cost for the KidsEye Summer Camp Program is $375. This includes: the KidsEye Filmmaking Guide, official KidsEye T-shirt, DVD copy of film, and admission to KidsEye International Film Festival, as well as a world premiere of the films made during the camp, in August. Limited Scholarship applications are available. Please contact us for details.
